- Travel through winding Himalayan roads surrounded by lush valleys and mountain landscapes.
- Enjoy glimpses of the local culture and villages along the route.
- Reach Sankri, the base for several Himalayan trekking routes.
- Rest and prepare for the upcoming trekking journey.

Day 2: Sankri to Seema via Taluka | Along the Supin River

- After breakfast, drive from Sankri to Taluka, the starting point of the trek.
- Enter Govind Pashu Vihar National Park and begin walking alongside the Supin River.
- Trek through dense forests, traditional villages, and Himalayan fields.
- Enjoy scenic views of Gangad Village across the river.
- Continue towards Seema, a small mountain settlement opposite Osla.

- Stay at Seema in a campsite or traditional homestay, depending on the arrangement.

Day 3: Seema/Osla to Har Ki Dun | Into the Alpine Valley

- Start the day's trek through forests and open meadows decorated with wildflowers.
- Follow the trail towards the confluence of the Supin River and the Ruinsara Valley tributary.
- Gradually enter higher alpine terrain as the trail gains altitude.
- Reach the scenic Har Ki Dun Valley, positioned at the meeting point of two glacial valleys.
- Enjoy the peaceful surroundings and dramatic Himalayan landscapes.
- Cover approximately 12–13 km during the day's trek.
- Set up camp at Har Ki Dun and relax for the night.

Day 4: Har Ki Dun to Ratha Tho | Across Morinda Tal

- Begin the morning trek from Har Ki Dun at a comfortable pace.
- Pass by the beautiful Morinda Tal, a serene mountain lake.
- Navigate boulder-covered sections that add an adventurous element to the trail.
- Enjoy impressive views of snow-covered peaks and expansive Himalayan valleys.
- Reach Ratha Tho, your campsite for the night.
- Relax amidst the peaceful high-altitude surroundings.

Day 5: Ratha Tho to Borasu Pass Base Camp | Entering the Snow Zone

- Begin the ascent towards Borasu Pass Base Camp at Upper Lamjung.

- Trek through increasingly rocky terrain, with sections that may be covered in snow.
- Gain altitude gradually while taking in spectacular views of glaciers and snow-capped mountains.
- Continue across the alpine landscape as the terrain becomes more demanding.
- Reach Upper Lamjung, the base camp for the Borasu Pass crossing.
- Set up camp in the high-altitude surroundings and prepare for the following day's pass crossing.

Day 6: Borasu Pass Base Camp to Bonga via Borasu Pass | The High-Altitude Crossing

- Begin early for the most challenging and important section of the trek.
- Ascend towards Borasu Pass, listed in the itinerary at approximately 17,583 ft.
- Cross two glaciers before tackling the final boulder-covered section towards the pass.
- Reach the top and take in spectacular views of the surrounding snow-covered Himalayan peaks.
- Begin the descent into Himachal Pradesh, travelling through snowfields and dramatic mountain terrain.
- Continue towards Bonga, located beside a tributary of the Baspa River.
- Set up camp at Bonga and rest after the demanding pass crossing.

Day 7: Bonga to Chitkul | Final Trail Through the Himalayas

- Begin the final trekking day with a gradual descent from Bonga.
- Walk through alpine meadows and peaceful forest sections.

- Enjoy the changing Himalayan scenery as the trail leads towards Chitkul.
- Reach Chitkul Village, known as the last inhabited village near the Indo-Tibetan border.
- Explore the village surroundings and admire its traditional character and spectacular valley views.
- Conclude the trekking expedition at Chitkul after an adventurous journey through the high Himalayas.
